THIS Review, which was intended to meet the views of many students of Chinese history, caused by the discontinuance of Ni-ho and Queriee on China and Japan, has reached its Twenty-second Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and contains much valuable information, especially connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Customs, and Manners and Customs, etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now writes upon Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive Geography, by well-known writers. It was thought that, by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present the latest and best record of Chinese Literature on China etc., and to give extracts embodying asides of the Most recent work on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to the Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Press.

The Notes and Queries are still continuing and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial, and Chinese and European Services, and also by the Missionary bodies, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Elliot, Bretschneider, and Hux, Professors Legge, and Messrs Baller, Waters, Stein, and Cummins, and Messrs. Faber, Koych, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Piton, and Taylor, all well-known names indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subjects.

The Subscription is fixed at $8.00 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

The addition of a Chess Column to the Chinese Mail seems to demand a word of introduction, which may be very brief. Every Thursday evening, this column will appear and will contain problems, games, and notes of transient or permanent interest to Chess players. Contributions will be heartily welcomed, but no effort will be spared to make this new feature of the paper successful and characteristic. Thanks to the Hongkong Chess Club the game is well played here, and appreciated as the noblest of games should be. The history of Chess in the history of the world.

is the history of civilization. No man can say where or when it originated, and it is a game not only of all time but of all countries. Classic Goecro is a unique instance of a nation attaining a pre-eminent place without a knowledge of Chess. It forms a universal language, and few studies are more interesting than national characteristics as shown over the Chess-board. We shall illustrate this by occasional games and problems from all countries. The world-wide mention of countries. The world-wide reputation of Chess has been won by its own merits. In no other game is the element of chance or the fortuitous advantage of eye or muscle so completely excluded. Luck counts for something on the billiard table and on the cricket field, but in Chess mind is pitted against mind, and skill or carelessness alone can win or lose a game.

The Game of Chess ranks high in the history of recreations. Its origin is more ancient than that of history itself and few games alter so little as centuries pass. Wherever there is civilization, there is Chess. The game is not only of all times but of all places. The points of difference between our Chinese and European Chess are fewer than the points of resemblance. No game has so glorious a history nor so many illustrious champions. It forms an international language in which all countries learn to esteem each other. The game has left its mark on the history of our own country. The Chancellor of the Exchequer borrows his title and that of his office from the Chess-board.

The following sportive trifle by Mr J. N. Babson, while offering no difficulties, may yield sufficient amusement to justify its position as our first problem.
 Problem No. 1.
 By J. N. BABSON.
Black (9 pieces.)

White (6 pisco).
 "White to play and Mate, Salomate," Salomate said. Salomate in two moves.

The Hon. H. E. Pollock, Acting Attorney General, managed to defeat his latest challenger for the Championship Cup of the Hongkong Chess Club. His opponent was Mr M. J. Deneary, who is a first grade player.

Salomate made an ill-considered move. Deneary made an unfortunate slip which lost him a Knight. Mr Pollock was the victor and the champion of the Hongkong Chess Club. The first holder was Mr E. Biazich, who was defeated by Lieut. Colonel the O'Gorman, who was in turn defeated by Mr J. H. Fitzgerald, a first grade player, Mr P. C. de Souza. It was Mr E. Pollock, defeated, and since then he was challenged by and defeated Mr Biazich, Mr Col. O'Gorman, Mr C. A. M. de Jesus, Mr J. H. Fitzgerald, and Mr J. H. Fitzgerald, who was defeated by Mr J. H. Fitzgerald, as he was well be, with the result of his matches with these stronger players, and as he has had plenty of victories he has been able to hold on to the Cup to defend the title of Champion since the end of April last, he is handing back the Cup to Mr de Souza, who will now be open to challenge for the cup, and he held for as long as he could, but he was forced to give up before becoming the property of any number.

OFFICIAL CHANGES AND THE COLONIAL VERSIONS

There is a considerable speculation as to numerous changes in the Colonial Service which must inevitably take place very shortly. Already Sir Hubert Jerningham is in England, and it is rumoured that he is not likely to return to Mauritius, whilst Sir William Robinson's term of service in Hongkong will terminate before long. Sir Alfred Hadoway due to leave British Honduras next year, as is Sir Charles Broome to relinquish his command in Trinidad. Mr. R. B. Liewellyn, the Administrator of the Gambia, completes his service there next year, and Sir Gilbert Carter will also leave service in the time of Lagos. With so many changes impending it is only natural that attention should already be directed to the question, as up to the present time the Secretary of State has taken every opportunity of importing into the Colonial Service those who cannot be said to have had any claim for recognition on account of work performed in that service. It is sincerely to be hoped that the last of such appointments has been made, and that, with the opportunities which will soon offer a good healthy stream of promotion will be kept off, so that not only the higher officials will get a step, but that, by promoting the seniors, the juniors will also share in the uplift.

The fact must not be lost sight of that the promotion of a Colonial Secretary to a Governorship means a step right through the service for all grades, and so in like manner when an outsider is appointed to a Governorship all promotion is stopped. The Colonial Service has been a decidedly regular one in the past, and includes in its ranks many most able administrators, who have worked their way step by step through the various grades; but, if promotion is to be stopped by what may be termed foreign importations, then discount will soon prevail, and the service will lose a certain amount of its strength. — Colonies and India.

ecolence which characterizes that publication, and altogether forms a valuable contribution to the general knowledge of Chinese history and geography. The editor, a biographer well-versed in interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Kristofer on "The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Fair Grounds, Peking, from 1872 to 1890. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notes on New Books include a most generous notice of the Chinese Review, and a notice of "Fan-Hsu," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting. —North-China Daily News.

A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to read and appreciate.

The November-December number of the Chinese Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily excite the comprehension of all students of all missionaries. Mr. H. E. Parker's "Short Journeys to Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. H. Balfour contributes a paper on "The Chinese of the Province of Szechuen," the founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which on "On Chinese Cash in the Form of Paper Money," might more appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, completes the number. —H. A. Daily Press.

Printer's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-
The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighboring countries, between that Review and that which has been edited in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such change of publication as is now provided extremely desirable, and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the membership of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now continuously cultivated, and who necessarily represented in the Review a number of the ablest and most highly creditable of their respective authors. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are styled by both accuracy and freshness of manner, and an account of the career of the Chinese post-officer of the eleventh century, by Mr. E. C. Bowring, is not only historically valuable, but is distinguished by its literary power. Brief articles of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried off with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that 'Notes' and 'Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects will result in a similar degree of literary merit to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.

Local Delivery.
1. All correspondence posted before

1. All parcels must be delivered the same day in Town (Ship Street to Bonham Street) and in the Country (to level of Robinson Road) at or about 10 a.m., noon, 2 p.m. & 4 p.m. 6 p.m. Tallies for boxes, 9 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m., 5 p.m., unless otherwise directed, should be returned by the Contract Mails.

2. Boxholders who desire to send Circulars, Dividend Warrants, Invitations, Garden Seeds, &c., all of the same weight, to addresses in Hongkong, or to the Post Office, must affix the postage being then charged to the sender's account. Each batch must consist of at least ten.

3. Boxholders may also send Patterns to the same place in the same way. These require no sealing. Patterns may be wholly or partly of the nature of the contents, as first exhibited or stated to the Postmaster General, as he may consider necessary, and approved by him. Printed Circulars may be inserted in such Patterns.

General.

The Post Office declines all responsibility for Unregistered Letters containing Bonds, Notes or Jewellery, and, where the guarantee has been neglected, will make no allowance into alleged losses of such letters.

It is forbidden to insert in ordinary or Registered Correspondence (a) Current Colours, (b) Articles liable to Customs Duty.

Parcel Post to the United Kingdom.

Parcels not exceeding 11 lbs. in weight are received in Hongkong and at British Colonies, and are transmitted to the United Kingdom by P. & O. Packet and Gibraltar. No parcel is sent with the Overland Mail via Brindisi. Parcels therefore arrive in London about eight days later than the Mail. Parcels may be sealed, but any parcel, even though sealed, is liable to be opened for examination.

Parcels must be posted in Hongkong before 3 p.m., on the day before the departure of the Mail. Those arriving from the Coast, &c., afterwards here are kept for the following P. & O. Mail.

Parcels must not exceed 40 cents per lb., and 2 cents each succeeding lb. or fraction of a lb., which includes Registration fee, and must be prepaid in stamps. No further charge is made in the United Kingdom except for Customs dues. No parcel must be more than 3 feet 6 inches in length, or 6 inches in greatest diameter, or 6 inches in circumference. A receipt is given for each Parcel.

The sender must fill up a form of Customs Declaration, which can be obtained free of each Post Office. No parcel can be accepted till this is completely and accurately filled up. The form is ordinarily sent from China, which are liable to duty at 50s. and Tobacco.

Dangerous or perishable goods, articles likely to injure the Mails, Liquids (unless securely packed) or parcels easily fractured such as band-boxes, are prohibited. No Parcel can be received at the value exceeding $500.

A Parcel may contain a letter to the same address as that of the Parcel itself, or any other Parcel to the same address. No other enclosures are allowed.

With regard to inward Parcels, addresses are requested to observe that the Parcel must be addressed to the name of the proprietor of letters, &c., is limited. The Regulations are generally similar to those above, and the Parcels are sent out of Shanghai.

The Post Office is not legally responsible for the safe delivery of Registered correspondence, but it is prepared to make good the contents of such correspondence lost or
